Digital Transformation in Law & Society: Comparative Perspectives on Families and New Media

Bonn, February 3-4, 2020
Käte Hamburger Kolleg „Recht als Kultur“

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3

14:00 Welcome and Introduction Nina Dethloff

I. Children as Social Subjects in the Digital World
14:30-16:30, Chair: Louisa Specht-Riemenscheider

Caja Thimm Digitized Families? Platform-based Activities on Instagram, TikTok or Alexa, and Family Interaction

Nadia Kutscher Positionings, Challenges and Ambivalences in Children's and Parents’ Perspectives in Digitalized Familial Contexts

Katharina Kaesling Protection and Participation of Children Online: A Rights-based Approach

16:30 Coffee Break

II. Children as Objects (of Imagery)?
17:00-18:20, Chair: Katharina Kaesling

Ulla Authenrieth Doing Family Online – Visualization of Childhood and Family in the Social Web

Paula Távora Vítor Banning Children’s Images Online – A Portuguese Perspective on Sharenting

18:20 Dinner

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4

III. Regulating Data and Digital Economy, Protecting Children?
9:30-11:30, Chair: Nina Dethloff

Ayelet Blecher-Prigat Lost Between Data and Family? Shortcomings of Current Understandings of the Law

Olufunmilayo B. Arewa Information, Privacy and Children in the Digital Economy: A U.S. Perspective

Louisa Specht-Riemenscheider Protection of Children in the European Union: Privacy and Online Video Sharing Platforms

11:30 Coffee Break

IV. Family Homes and New Media: Private Life and Trust in the Digital Age
12:00-13:20, Chair: Katharina Kaesling

Simone van der Hof Smart Toys Watching Children – Legal and Philosophical Implications for Families

Victoria Nash The Rise of the Algorithmic Child: Protecting Children in Smart Homes

13:20 Conclusion of the Conference Katharina Kaesling

13:30 Lunch