

Christopher Adair-Toteff (Tampa): Philosopher, senior researcher at the University of Kent, professorships and teaching activities at the American University in Bulgaria and at Mississippi State University, on research committee of the American Sociological Association, founding member of the International Social Theory Consortium.

Martin Albrow (London) Sociologist, principle research associate at the London School of Economics, China in Comparative Perspective Network, professor emeritus at the University of Wales, fellow at the Käte Hamburger Centre for Advanced Study “Law as Culture”.

Andreas Anter (Leipzig): Political scientist, sociologist and German studies scholar, professor for political science at the University of Leipzig, senior research fellow at the Centre for European Law and Politics at the University of Bremen, formerly program director at Reclam publishing Leipzig.

Upendra Baxi (Delhi): Legal scholar, professor at the Universities of South Gujarat and Delhi, the law schools of Washington College, Duke University, the Universities of Warwick, New York and Toronto, currently fellow at the Käte Hamburger Centre for Advanced Study “Law as Culture”.

Olivier Beaud (Paris): Legal scholar, professor of public law at the University of Panthéon Assas (Paris-II), director of the Michel Villey institute, president of the association Qualité de la science française.

Hinnerk Bruhns (Paris): Historian, social scientist, emeritus research director at the Centre de Recherches Historiques (CNRS), editor of the e-journal Trivium, member of the editorial board of Max Weber Studies, chairman of the scientific advisory council of ZIF, Bielefeld.

Marta Bucholc (Warsaw): Sociologist, assistant professor for sociology at the University of Warsaw, holder of i.a. the Florian Znaniecki award of the Polish Sociological Association, currently fellow at the Käte Hamburger Centre for Advanced Study “Law as Culture”.

François Chazel (Paris): Sociologist, emeritus professor at the University of Paris-Sorbonne (Paris IV), professor at the Université de Bordeaux II and researcher at GEMASS, director of the Institut des Sciences Humaines Appliquées (ISHA).

Gerhard Dilcher (Frankfurt): Legal historian, emeritus professor for German history of law, church law und civil law at Goethe University, teaching activities and professorship at the law faculty of Freie Universität Berlin, currently visiting professorship at the University of Trent, Italy.

Dieter Engels (Bonn): Lawyer, president of the German Federal Court of Auditors, honorary professor at the Deutsche Hochschule für Verwaltungswissenschaften in Speyer, chairman of the Federal Personnel Committee.

Xujun Gao (Shanghai): Director of the German- and EU-Law Center at the law school of Tongji University (Shanghai), chair for private economic law at the Chinesisch-Deutsches Hochschulkolleg (CDHK), currently fellow at the Käte Hamburger Centre for Advanced Study “Law as Culture”.

Werner Gephart (Bonn): Legal scholar, sociologist and artist, director of the Käte Hamburger Centre for Advanced Study “Law as Culture”, numerous visiting professorships, editor of the volume “Recht” of the Max Weber-Gesamtausgabe (MWG I/22,3).

Uta Gerhardt (Heidelberg): Sociologist, teaching activity and professorships inter alia at the Universities of Berlin, Konstanz, London and Heidelberg, research stays in the UK and USA, former member of the directorate of the German Sociological Association (GSA).

Paul Geyer (Bonn): Romance languages scholar, professor for romance philology and dean of the faculty of philosophy at the University of Bonn, former chairman of the Deutscher Romanistenverband, director of the Bonn Italy Centre.

José M. González García (Madrid): Philosopher, sociologist, professor at the Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas, numerous visiting professorships, recipient of Premio Nacional de Ensayo, former fellow at the Käte Hamburger Centre for Advanced Study “Law as Culture”.

Edith Hanke (Munich): Historian, scientific editor at the Bayerische Akademie der Wissenschaften, director general of the Max Weber complete edition, member of the editorial board of “Max Weber Studies”.

Siegfried Hermes (Bonn): Sociologist, co-editor of the volume “Recht” of the Max-Weber-Gesamtausgabe (MWG I/22,3), doctoral thesis on the representation of patrimonialism in Max Weber’s Herrschaftssoziologie, currently project manager at ASIIIN.

Matthias Koenig (Göttingen): Sociologist, professor for sociology of religion at the University of Göttingen, teaching activities and visiting professorships inter alia at the Universities of Michigan and Paris, currently fellow at the Max Planck Institute for the Study of Ethnic and Religious Diversity.

Masahiro Noguchi (Kyoto): sociologist, assistant professor at the Ritsumeikan University in Kyoto, doctoral thesis on Max Weber’s sociology of culture and political theory: “Kampf und Kultur. Max Webers Theorie der Politik aus der Sicht seiner Kultursoziologie”, Berlin 2005.

Eckart Otto (Munich): Theologian, professor in ordinary for the Old Testament at the University of Munich, numerous guest professorships, editor of volume I/21.1–2 of the Max-Weber-Gesamtausgabe: Die Wirtschaftsethik der Weltreligionen. Das antike Judentum. Schriften 1911–1920.

Dieter Ronte (Bonn): Art historian, former director of the Kunstmuseum Bonn, member of the scientific advisory board of the Käte Hamburger Centre for Advanced Study “Law as Culture”, numerous publications, especially on the art of the 20th century.

Joachim Savelsberg (Minneapolis): Sociologist, professor at the department of sociology, University of Minnesota, numerous publications on law, human rights, and collective memory, co-author of “American Memories: Atrocities and the Law” (2011).

Martin Schermaier (Bonn): Legal scholar, director of the Institute for Roman Law and Comparative Legal History, teaching activities in Salzburg and Regensburg, co-editor of the Savigny-Zeitschrift für Rechtsgeschichte, former fellow at the Käte Hamburger Centre for Advanced Study “Law as Culture”.

Philipp Stoellger (Rostock): Theologian and philosopher, professor for systematic theology and philosophy of religion, fellowships i.a. at Yale University Law School, the Institute for Advanced Study in Berlin and the Käte Hamburger Centre for Advanced Study “Law as Culture”.

Andreas Thier (Zurich): Legal scholar, Professor for Legal History, Church Law and Legal Theory in connection with Civil Law and Director of the Centre for Legal History at the law faculty of the University of Zurich, member of the editorial board of the Savigny-Zeitschrift für Rechtsgeschichte.

Hubert Treiber (Hannover): Sociologist, political scientist and philosopher, emeritus professor for Administrative Studies, science award “Recht und Gesellschaft” of the Christa-Hoffmann-Riem-Stiftung awarded by the Deutsche “Vereinigung für Rechtssoziologie”, numerous fellowships.

Sam Whimster (London) Sociologist, London Metropolitan University, along with Hans Henrik Bruun editor of Max Weber’s “Collected Methodological Writings”, currently fellow at the Käte Hamburger Centre for Advanced Study “Law as Culture”.

Magdi Youssef (Cairo): Professor of Arabic literature, president of the International Association of Intercultural Studies (IAIS), visiting professorships inter alia at the Universities of Cologne, Bonn and Dublin.